NEL is regulated by the Claims Management Regulator in respect of regulated claims management activities and its authorisation number is: CRM40221

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

1. Any expression of dissatisfaction will be deemed to be a complaint.
2. Concern about the handling of your case should, in the first instance, be discussed with the consultant allocated to you.
3. If you are still not satisfied, you should contact Mr Howell John, the Managing Director to make a formal complaint.
4. Complaints about any matters relating to finance should be made directly to Mr Howell John, as consultants are not authorised to discuss these matters.

SPECIAL NOTE!

Please check the terms and conditions in your contract with us and in the event of you being supported by your own insurance company, the terms of support detailed in your policy documents. You are reminded that you are liable for any shortfall in their support.

5. Complaint in respect of a claims management service that we have provided and that is regulated under the Compensation Act 2006 should be sent in writing:

by email to: hj@natemplaw.co.uk or,

by letter to: Mr Howell John Nationwide Employment Lawyers Ltd

6. We reserve the right to decline to consider a complaint that is more than six months after you became aware of the cause of your complaint. There may be instances where we will waive this requirement at our sole discretion. We will confirm to you, in writing, if a complaint has been made outside the time limit that we are prepared to consider.
7. We will send you a written or electronic acknowledgement of a complaint within five business days of receipt.
8. Within eight weeks of receiving a complaint we will send you either:
 - (a) a final response; or
 - (b) a response which:

- (i) explains why we are still not in a position to make a final response, giving reasons for the further delay and indicating when we expect to be able to provide a final response, and;
 - (ii) informs you that you may refer the handling of the complaint to the Legal Ombudsman if you are dissatisfied with the delay.
9. Where we decide that redress is appropriate, we will provide you with fair compensation for any acts or omissions for which we are responsible and will comply with any offer of redress that you accept. Appropriate redress will not always involve financial redress.
10. If you are not satisfied with our response, or if a complaint is not resolved after eight weeks, you may refer your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman; this must be done within six months of our final response to your complaint.
